Delta police raided two homes in a rural neighbourhood near the 6000 block of 28th Avenue this morning. The Criminal Investigation Branch, executed a series of search warrants for controlled substances. Due to the nature of the search warrants and the potential for high risk the Municipal Integrated Emergency Response Team (MIERT), assisted by the Vancouver Police ERT, was utilized to execute the search warrants.

A written statement from Delta's media relations officer, Sgt. Paul Eisenzimmer confirmed that the properties have been contained and there is no danger to the public.
